STATE OF RHODE ISLAND

EXECUTIVE OFFICE OF HEALTH AND HUMAN SERVICES

APPEALS OFFICE

DEPARTMENT OF HUMAN SERVICES

v. DOCKET NO. 26-5293

[redacted]

DECISION

I. INTRODUCTION

A Microsoft Teams hearing on the above-entitled matter was conducted by an Administrative Disqualification Hearing Officer on October 5, 2026. The Department of Administration, Office of Internal Audit, Fraud Unit (Agency) on behalf of the Department of Human Services (DHS) initiated this matter for an Administrative Disqualification Hearing to examine the charge that [redacted] (Respondent) committed an Intentional Program Violation (IPV) of the Supplemental Nutrition Assistance Program (SNAP). The Agency argues that the Respondent failed to report her earned income despite being required to do so. The Agency is seeking that the Respondent be charged with an IPV for the period of July 11, 2025, through April 30, 2026, and be disqualified from SNAP for a period of 12 months. For the reasons discussed in more detail below, the Administrative Disqualification Hearing has been decided in the Agency's favor.

II. JURISDICTION

The Executive Office of Health and Human Services (EOHHS) is authorized and designated by R.I.G.L. §42-7.2-6.1 and EOHHS regulation 210-RICR-10-05-2 to be the entity responsible for appeals and hearings related to DHS Programs. The Administrative Hearing was held in accordance with the Administrative Procedures Act (R.I.G.L. §42-35-1 et. Seq.) and EOHHS regulation 210-RICR-10-05-2.

III. ISSUE

The issue is whether the Respondent committed a SNAP IPV by intentionally making a false statement, or by misrepresenting, concealing, or withholding facts to receive SNAP benefits she was not entitled to, in accordance with Federal and Departmental Policy as set forth below.

IV. STANDARD OF PROOF

The Administrative Disqualification Hearing Officer is required to carefully consider the evidence and determine by clear and convincing evidence if an IPV occurred. The Agency's burden to support claims with clear and convincing evidence requires that they present clear, direct, and convincing facts that the Hearing Officer can accept as highly probable.

V. PARTIES AND EXHIBITS

Present for the Agency was Fraud Internal Auditor Brittny Mederios (Auditor Mederios), who investigated the Respondent's SNAP case, and provided testimony based on the facts established in determining an IPV of the SNAP regulations. The Agency offered the following evidence as exhibits at the hearing:

- Exhibit #1: The employment and wage verification record for [redacted].
- Exhibit #2: SNAP Recertification (SNAP Recert) signed March 17, 2025.
- Exhibit #3: Benefits Decision Notice (BDN) dated March 24, 2025.

- Exhibit #4: SNAP Interim Report (SNAP IR) signed September 17, 2025.
- Exhibit #5: SNAP Recert signed March 21, 2026.
- Exhibit #6: Eligibility Technician (ET) case notes dated March 23, 2026, and March 30, 2026.
- Exhibit #7: Electronic Disqualified Recipient system (EDRs) stating no previous SNAP disqualification for the Respondent.
- Exhibit #8: An Important SNAP Notice (SNAP Packet) dated July 29, 2026.

The Respondent [redacted], did not attend the telephonic hearing. In accordance with 7 CFR § 273.16(e)(4) and 218-RICR-20-00-1.22(K)(13), the hearing was conducted without the Respondent present or represented.

VI. RELEVANT LAW and/or REGULATIONS

7 C.F.R. § 273.16, entitled "Disqualification for Intentional Program Violation (IPV)" (c), defines an IPV as intentionally making false or misleading statement, or misrepresenting, concealing, or withholding facts; or committing any act that constitutes a violation of SNAP, SNAP regulations, or any State statute "for the purpose of using, presenting, transferring, acquiring, receiving, possessing or trafficking of SNAP benefits or EBT cards." To determine whether an IPV has occurred, 7 C.F.R. § 273.16(e)(6), requires the State to conduct an administrative disqualification hearing and to determine whether there is clear and convincing evidence that an IPV occurred.

Similarly, the Rhode Island regulation 218-RICR-20-00-1.9, entitled "Intentional Program Violations" (A) provides that the Office of Internal Audit is responsible for investigating any case of alleged IPV and ensuring the appropriate cases are acted upon through an Administrative Disqualification Hearings whenever there is sufficient documentary evidence to substantiate that an individual has committed an IPV. Like its federal counterpart, the R.I regulation § 1.9(B) requires that "clear and convincing evidence" demonstrates that the household member(s) committed or intended to commit an IPV, as defined in § 1.9(C).

Household income means all income from whatever source, per 218-RICR-20-00-1.5.2(A), including all wages and salaries for services performed as an employee, except exclusions. 7 C.F.R. § 273.9(b) and 218-RICR-20-00-1.5.2(A).

Pursuant to 218-RICR-20-00-1.13.1(A)(2)(a), Simplified Reporter households are required to report changes in income which bring the household's gross income in excess of the gross income eligibility standard for their household size by the 10th day of the month following the month in which the change occurred. Per 218-RICR-20-00-1.8(A)(3), a Simplified Reporter is assigned a 12-month certification period.

Per Rhode Island regulation 218-RICR-20-00-1.9(A)(3)(c)(1), and Federal Regulation 7 C.F.R. § 273.16(h)(1)(i), if there is a finding that an IPV occurred, the disqualification penalty for the first violation is one (1) year.

VII. FINDINGS OF FACT

1. The Agency received a referral from DHS alleging that the Respondent received SNAP benefits while failing to report her correct household income. As a result, an investigation commenced into the Respondent's SNAP case.
2. The employment and wage verification form shows that the Respondent was hired at [redacted] on November 20, 2024, and she received weekly wages from May 30, 2025, through June 18, 2026 .
3. On March 17, 2025, DHS received the Respondent's SNAP recertification. She signed under the penalty of perjury, showing she was aware of her responsihilities, and the SNAP Penalty Warnings.

4. A BDN dated March 24, 2025, was mailed to the Respondent stating her SNAP benefits are being renewed. Page 2 informs her of the SNAP benefit amount for her household and eligibility period and the "Changes You Must Report for SNAP: You must tell us if your household's gross monthly income (before taxes) is more than $2798. You must tell us no later than 10 days after the end of the month when your income went up." Pages 5 through 8 explains her RIGHTS and RESPONSIBILITIES, Specifically, "you have the responsibility to supply accurate information about your income, resources and living arrangements on this application."
5. On September 17, 2025, DHS received the Respondent's SNAP interim report. The Respondent reported no changes to employment despite continued employment with [redacted]. According to the work number wage verification it shows monthly income of $3,660.24 for June 2025. The Respondent signed the SNAP interim report form under penalty of perjury.
6. On March 21, 2026, DHS received the Respondent's SNAP recertification. Question #8 entitled "Income Information" asks for current employment. The Respondent again, omitted her employment with [redacted]. Rights, Responsibilities and SNAP Penalty warnings were provided. The Respondent's SNAP recertification was signed under penalty of perjury.
7. According to the Eligibility Technician case note, entered on March 23, 2026, the Respondent called DHS to complete her SNAP recert interview. The Respondent reported no changes. She reported being unemployed and that she was attending a vocational school part time. A second case note was entered on March 30, 2026, DHS identified the unreported income from [redacted] and requested verification of the wages. On May 1, 2026, the wages for [redacted] were updated in the Respondent's case.

8. On July 27, 2026, the Agency logged into EDRs to determine the Respondent's SNAP disqualification period. The query shows the Respondent had no previous disqualifications. Therefore, this is the Respondent's first violation, and the Agency is pursuing a 12-month disqualification from SNAP pursuant to 7 CFR § 273.16.
9. A SNAP Packet dated July 29, 2026, was mailed to the Respondent at [redacted] The SNAP Packet states that the Respondent is being charged with committing an IPV for the period of July 11, 2025, through April 30, 2026, because of "Unreported Earned Income."
10. On September 2, 2026, an Advanced Notice of Administrative Disqualification Hearing was sent by first class mail to the Respondent's address of record. The notice stated that the hearing was scheduled for October 5, 2026, at 9:00 AM. In accordance with 7 C.F.R. § 273.16(e)(3) and 218-RICR-20-001-1.23(K)(6), EOHHS provided at least thirty (30) days advance notice, in writing of the scheduling of the disqualification hearing, and the hearing was held accordingly.

VIII. DISCUSSION

The Agency maintains that the Respondent knowingly concealed her employment at [redacted] while receiving SNAP benefits despite repeated notice of reporting responsibilities in multiple documents she signed under penalty of perjury. Therefore, the Agency's position is clear, the Respondent committed an IPV from July 11, 2025, through April 30, 2026, which is the final month she received benefits while failing to report her income.

Thereby, she should be disqualified for SNAP for a period of twelve months.

The BDN dated March 24, 2025, informed the Respondent that she has a responsibility to supply accurate income information and repeated the SNAP Penalty Warnings for intentionally breaking SNAP rules. The Respondent received weekly wages from [redacted] in June 2025, totaling $3,660.24 in gross income, which exceeded the reported gross monthly income of $2,798. SNAP regulations state that Simplified Reporters are required to report changes in income which bring the household's income in excess of the gross income eligibility standard for the household size by the 10th day of the month following the month in which the change occurred. 218-RICR-20-00-1.13.1(A)(2)(a). However, the Respondent, as a Simplified Reporter, failed to report this income to DHS.

Based on the above, the Respondent was required to report her household income pursuant to 218-RICR-20-00-1.5.2(A). The Respondent was informed of the Penalties for Perjury, her Rights and Responsibilities, and the SNAP Penalty Warnings as required, but she failed to report her household income. Therefore, the Respondent intentionally provided false information, concealed information, and otherwise intentionally failed to report her correct household income. Accordingly, there is clear and convincing evidence that the Respondent committed an IPV on July 11, 2025, and continued through April 30, 2026.

IX. CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

After careful review of the testimony and evidence presented at the administrative disqualification hearing it is clear:

1. The Respondent signed under the Penalties of Perjury statement attesting that her answers on the forms were correct and complete to the best of her knowledge. The Respondent, however failed to report her household's earned income to DHS in June 2025.

2. The Respondent was aware of the Reporting requirements, her Rights and Responsibilities, and the SNAP Penalty Warnings when she submitted her SNAP interim report on September 17, 2025.

3. The Agency has demonstrated by clear and convincing evidence that the Respondent knowingly failed to report her household earned income. Therefore, the Respondent intentionally misrepresented, concealed, or withheld facts pertinent to her SNAP case.

4. The Agency has demonstrated by clear and convincing evidence that the respondent committed an IPV of the SNAP regulations from July 11, 2025, through April 30, 2026, based on unreported earned income.

5. Consequently, the Respondent as head of household will not be able to participate in SNAP for twelve months per 7 C.F. R § 273.16(B)(1)(I) and 218-RICR-20-00-1.9(A)(3)(C)(1), as this is the Respondent's first IPV.

X. DECISION

Based on the foregoing findings of facts and conclusions of law, it is found that a final order be entered that the Agency's request for an IPV against the Respondent for twelve (12) months is granted.
